BIO

Love Loba is the sweet baby child project of Marisol Eichborn (guitar), Anastasia Pettinato (drums), and Kaila Cooper (bass). The all female indie-punk group met in London at the Institute of Contemporary Music Performance.

Their influences include Wolf Alice, Angel Olsen, and Amyl and the Sniffers to name a few. With a proclivity for roaring melodies and a high energy performance you can expect to be dancing and a total part of the sonic experience.

Their songs are about heartbreaks, heart ons, and societal/political issues. They want to inspire their listeners to chase their day dream- Plan A all day!
